THE PRESIDENT'S MOVEMENTS. He Has Had a Busy Day and Will Leave

The President has been very busy all day and is trying to tie up the odds and ends of little things requiring his attention in order to get away to Loon Lake. He will leave some time during the afternoon or evening on a special car which will be attached to one of the regular express trains. Private Secretary Halford will probably go with him, and, if so, will be away

It has not been definitely decided when or where the letter of acceptance will be given out.

The President had but few callers today, devoting his attention to departmental business requiring overlooking or signature by the Executive.

Assistant Secretary Soley had an interview with him about naval matters and acquainted him with the Venezuelan situation. Other department chiefs communicated with him dur-ing the morning, and the latest telegrams about the cholera situation were forwarded to him as soon as they were received.

It is probable that the President will have his letter of acceptance to be copied and given to the Press Association Sunday night for publication Monday morning.

There was a cabinet meeting this afternoon, at which the cholera situation was discussed, with a view to any contingencies which may

KEEPING A SHARP WATCH.

Cholera has very little chance of getting into police department has received stringent orders Cholers has very little chance of getting into boiler of the cruiser New York. Some doubt had been expressed as to the ability of the new steel derrick to lift the boilers of the New York without accident, and as the same derrick is to be used for all of the ships now under construction at the works great interest was manifested in the attempt. Under the circumstances the successful accomplishment of the task is of considerable importance. The weight i each main boiler of the New York is about seventy tons exclusive of fittings and details and there are six more of the same kind.

President Harrison's proclamation will be ignored at quarantine.

"I shall be governed by the state laws entirely," said Dr. Jenkins, "and President Harrison's proclamation does not apply to this port. I am vested with power to hold any vessel as long as I deem it necessary, and no vessel will be detained for twenty days unless the occasion requires. I shall hold them six months if necessary."

These figures, though official, are known to be incomplete, for, as has been before stated, many of the smaller villages in which the disease is known to exist are not heard from if heard from at all until too late to incorporate their returns in the official total. It is thought, too, that in many unfrequented parts of the several governments in which the epidemic is prevalent that no reports as to the cases and deaths are made. In St. Peters-burg there is no trouble in getting the exact figures. The city returns for yesterday give total of 144 new cases and fifty-four deaths. This is an increase of twenty-one new cases and fourteen deaths compared with the returns of Wednesday.

It is not believed that the scourge has spent its strength, though false hopes are sometimes.

its strength, though false hopes are sometimes, as yesterday, kindled by a marked falling off in the ravages of the epidemic. It is thought that before the disease dies out, for no one believes that it will disappear through the efforts of the doctors, the total number of deaths throughout Russia will reach an unparalleled figure. Con-servative estimates of the total already seached places the number of choices deaths at 150,000, and it will be seen that with this total being added to daily by over 2,000 that the mortality when the disease shall have disappeared will have reached an appalling total.
